My Reverend:-

I have just received a reply from the man I wrote to in Chicago concerning the 60 peso gold piece. He says that he would like to see the piece before buying. If you are willing, I wish you would bring the coin up, or give it to our boy and I will send it on approval to Chicago. The person I am sending it to is perfectly reliable.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Received the above mentioned coin on approval.

*Received from Howland Wood $150.00
(One hundred and fifty dollars) in payment of the above mentioned coin.

Dear Father Chaurand,

I am herewith enclosing my check for $15.00 to pay for the balance of the Oaxaca coins you left with me some time ago. If I find that I can sell any more I will let you know.

Very truly.

Dear Sir:

The man to whom I sent the copper Oaxaca piece, bought it, and I am herewith enclosing my cheque for Thirty Dollars ($30.00).

Have you one fo those 5-peso pieces about the size of a half-do lar with a large V on the back? If so, my friend would like one; he has all of the other pieces.

Very truly yours,

Curator
